

« Ô Toi qui es chez Toi dans le fond de mon cœur » :

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
allow me to join You in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
I adore You, my God, in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
praise be to You, my Lord, in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
I give myself to Your Love, in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
may Your joy arise in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
save me from all harm in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
let me draw life from You in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
I want what You want in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
open me toward the world in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
holy be Your Name in the depths of my heart.

O You who are at home in the depths of my heart,
abyss of light in the depths of my heart.

—Father Henri Caffarel